Small step-up from GCSE – builds on knowledge & skills you already have

Complex ideas & concepts

Larger step-up from GCSE – builds new knowledge & skills

The A level course focuses on listening, reading, writing and speaking skills; encouraging discussions and independent study and group research. In order to bridge the gap from GCSE to A Level we have an Induction Course at the start of Year 12 where we cover grammar and assess key skills in preparation for the course.

To help prepare you for the step up and keep you engaged with Spanish over the summer, please choose one or more of the research projects outlined below.

The number of stars indicates the level of difficulty of each task. These mirror the progression which you will experience over the course.

We would like you to bring your completed Transition Project work to Enrolment in August, but if you would like to get in touch about the project, get some feedback or find out more about the course, please email:
