EFL

English as a Foreign Language

Cambridge English: First is an upper intermediate level exam and set at Level B2 of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework for modern languages. It is suitable for learners who have a wide range of vocabulary and are able to study or work in an English-speaking environment.

This exam is taken by more than 270,000 people each year in more than 100 countries. It is a valuable qualification for anyone who wants to develop a career which requires language skills, including business, medicine, engineering and many other professions. It is also useful preparation for higher level examinations, such as the Cambridge Certificate in Advanced English and the Certificate of Proficiency in English. Exams can be taken throughout the year at nearby colleges.
